

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
JONAS ESCOBAR-ALFARO, Defendant.

Case No. 18-cr-00054-EJD-1 (VKD)

DETENTION ORDER

The United States moved for detention of defendant Jonas Escobar-Alfaro, on the grounds that Mr. Escobar-Alfaro poses a danger to others and the community and poses a risk of non-appearance. The Court held a hearing on the government's motion on January 2, 2019. Mr. Escobar-Alfaro was present at the hearing and represented by counsel.

For the reasons stated on the record during the hearing, the Court finds that the government has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that there are no conditions or combination of conditions of release that would reasonably assure the appearance of Mr. Escobar-Alfaro as required. Counsel for the United States and for Mr. Escobar-Alfaro have waived written findings of fact and a written statement of the reasons for detention.

Accordingly, Mr. Escobar-Alfaro is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Mr. Escobar-Alfaro shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on the request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver Mr. Escobar-Alfaro to the United States Marshal for the purpose of appearances in connection with court proceedings.
